Watch locals walk around the Chorten, spinning the prayer wheels and meditating in this lovely and peaceful spot. Make your way to your next stop, known as the "Buddha Point." The Buddha Dordenma is a massive Buddha statue in Thimphu made of bronze and gold. Take lots of pictures -- it's beautiful. Later, enjoy a visit to the Motithang Takin Preserve, which was once a mini zoo. The area was converted into a preserve for Bhutan's national animal, the takin, which is a cross between a goat and an antelope. In the evening, visit the Tashi Chhoedzong, known as the "Fortress of Glorious Religion", initially built-in 1702. Today, it houses the main secretariat building, the central monk body, and the office of the king.

Day 3: Thimphu/Gangtey Gonpa (B, L, D) Drive through the Bhutanese countryside passing small villages and panoramic views of the Himalayas en route to Gangtey for a night in a family's farmhouse.

Settle in and scan the scenery from the convenience of a private vehicle. The road climbs steeply through forests, with hanging lichen up near the Dochula Pass (3,050m/10,007 ft). The pass offers panoramic views of the Himalayan Mountains. Stop for tea and check out the view before continuing on to Gangtey Gonpa. Get a true taste of local life and stay overnight in a traditional Bhutanese farmhouse. Opt to wander around the small town to see young monks from the nearby school meandering in the street. Please note facilities at the farmhouse are basic, there will be no showers or running water for this night. Simple bedding is provided. Approximate travel time: 6-7 hours by private vehicle.

Day 4: Gangtey Gonpa/Punakha (B, L, D) Hike in the Phobjikha Valley and explore the Gangtey Gonpa Monastery. Afterward, travel to the ancient capital of Punakha and enjoy a short hike in Lobeysa to Chime Lhakhang, built-in 1499.

Approximate travel time: 3-4 hrs by private vehicle; 30 min to 1 hr on foot.

Day 5: Punakha (B, L, D) Visit Punakha Dzong, the winter capital of the Je Khenpo (chief abbot). Later, hike to Khamsum Yueley Chorten and take in the views, followed by a visit to the Sangchhen Dorji Lhuendrup Nunnery.
Visit Punakha Dzong, the winter seat of the Je Khenpo and the Monk Body, remarkably located between the rivers of the Mo (female) Chu and Pho (male) Chu. It is the second oldest and second-largest dzong (fortress) in Bhutan and one of its most majestic structures, housing many sacred relics. It is also the winter capital of the Je Khenpo (chief abbot). Next, cross the suspension bridge and then hike to Khamsum Yueley Chorten. Enjoy a hike through rice terraces, farms, and deep pine forests until we reach the stupa, which was consecrated in December 1999. Take a moment to breathe and admire the view; it's superb. Enjoy a hike and visit the Sangchhen Dorji Lhuendrup Nunnery and Temple complex. Perched on a ridge amid pine trees and overlooking the 3 Valleys of Toebesa, Punakha and Wangdi Phodrang, the complex is a meditation and traditional arts training center for nuns. Enjoy the peace and quiet and learn about the nunnery which was established by the Royal Grandfather.

Day 6: Punakha/Haa Dzongkhag (B,L,D) Enjoy Punakha before driving to Haa Valley. Take in more scenic Himalayan ranges and valleys. Visit the White Temple (Lhakhang Karpo) before an evening walk around town.

Enjoy some morning time in Punakha before driving to Haa Valley. Wind through deep gorges and blue pine forests before reaching the valley. Here we'll visit the beautiful Lhakhang Karpo (White Temple) near Haa town, only recently opened to tourists. It is believed that a black and a white pigeon were released to select where to build the temples in Haa valley. The white pigeon landed in the foothills of the mountain Chenrizi where the White Temple now stands. In the evening you'll be free to walk around Haa town. Approximate travel time: 6-7 hrs by private vehicle.

Day 7: Haa Dzongkhag/Paro (B,L,D) Enjoy a short hike up to Kila Gompa, a nunnery perched on a cliff housing over 60 nuns. Continue on to Paro, with free time to wander the streets and pick up some souvenirs.

We start off the day with a hike through the deep forest of pine trees and rhododendrons to Kila Goempa nunnery (approx 2.5 hrs). It seems to cling to a rocky cliff and houses around 60-70 nuns. This is a moderate level hike through stunningly beautiful scenery. After visiting the nunnery, follow the trail down through the forest to the road to meet the van. Drive back to Paro with time in the evening to wander the streets and pick up some souvenirs before enjoying a dinner with your group. Approximate travel time: 2-3 hrs hiking, 2-3 hrs by private vehicle.

Day 8: Paro/Bumdrak Camp (B,L,D) Trek through fluttering prayer flags, rhododendron trees, and conifer forests to reach Bumdrak camp at 3860m.

Today we begin the Bumdrak trek. Start with a short drive to the start point of the trek at 2950m. Climb steadily upwards for 2.5hrs to your picturesque lunch spot with stunning views of the Paro valley. Take your time and appreciate your surroundings as you go. The 18 different types of rhododendrons and lush conifer forest will give you plenty to look at. After lunch, continue on a more gradual incline for 1.5hrs to reach your home for the evening, Bumdrak Camp at 3860m. Approximate travel time: 4-5 hrs hiking.

Day 9: Paro (B,L,D) Trek back down through grassy meadows and trees covered in wispy moss. Later, hike to the stunning Taktsang Monastery (Tiger's Nest) and the Kyichu Temple, one of the oldest in Bhutan.

After breakfast, we start the descent. The majority of the trekking will be downhill on a steep incline, so walking poles are helpful. Trek through spruce, hemlock, cypress, and fir. A fairytale-like meadow ends the trek, complete with wild edible strawberries if the season is right. Next, we hike up to the Taktsang monastery (Tiger's Nest); containing 13 holy relics, it's considered one of the most venerated pilgrim sites of the Himalayan world. It is also where Guru Padmasambhava is said to have landed on the back of a tigress in the 8th century. Take in the stunning views en route and the incredible vista from this monastery, which clings to the rock towering 2,953m above the valley. Then we visit one of Bhutan's oldest and most beautiful temples. Built-in the 7th century, Kyichu Lhakhang Temple boasts stunning artwork inside and throughout the courtyards. Approximate travel time: 9-10 hrs hiking.
