
GEEO ITINERARY

Japan 6/21/2025

Day 1: Tokyo Arrive in Tokyo at any time. Meet your group for a welcome meeting around 6:00 or 7:00 p.m.

Arrive in Tokyo at any time. The nearest airport is Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) (HND), and Tokyo is also served by Narita International Airport (NRT). We recommend arriving a day or two early to fully explore this huge city (e.g., to see Sensō-ji Temple or Tokyo Tower). This will also give you time to adjust to the time difference, overcome any jet lag, and avoid any disruption to your trip due to flight delays or cancellations. We can book extra hotel nights for you in Tokyo before the trip. Hotel Check-in and Welcome Meeting Please note that hotel check-in usually opens around 2:00-3:00 p.m., so if your flight arrives early in the morning, you may wish to book a pre-trip hotel night so that you can rest when you arrive. There are no planned activities until an intro meeting around 6:00 or 7:00 p.m., usually in the hotel lobby. Check for a sign or ask at the reception desk about the exact time and location of the group meeting. Please make every effort to arrive in time for this meeting. If you are delayed and will arrive late, please inform us. Your tour leader will then leave you a message at the front desk informing you of where and when to meet up tomorrow. After the meeting, you might choose to get dinner at a nearby restaurant with your traveling companions and your tour leader to further get to know one another. Joining Instructions From Haneda International Airport: - By train: Take a train from Haneda Airport, Keikyu Airport Line, for approximately 15 minutes (4 stops) to Keikyu-Kawasaki Station. The train ticket fee is 280 JPY per person. It is a 5-minute walk from the train station to the hotel. - By bus: Take the Haneda Airport Limousine Bus from Terminal 3 (the international terminal) approximately 30 minutes to Shiyakusho-mae, located south of the hotel on the opposite side of the block. The fare is 300 JPY per person. Bus tickets can be purchased at Haneda Airport from vending machines near the bus stop. From Narita International Airport: - By train: The JR Narita Express (3,250 JPY) is a direct train between Narita Airport and Tokyo. Get off at Shinagawa Station and take the Keikyu Main Line, for approximately 12 minutes (2 stops) to Keikyu-Kawasaki Station. The train ticket from Shinagawa Station to Keikyu-Kawasaki Station is 280 JPY per person. It is a 5-minute walk from the train station to the hotel. - By bus: Take the Airport Bus TYO-NRT to Tokyo Station (1,500 JPY, approximately 1.5 hours), and then take the Tōkaidō Line or Keihin-Tōhoku Line (320 JPY) to Kawasaki Station. It is a 5-10-minute walk from train station to the hotel. Pre-booked airport transfer: If you have booked an arrival transfer shuttle bus with us, a local representative will be waiting for you outside the luggage hall with a sign with the transfer company name "GREEN TOMATO" on it. If for any reason you are not met at the airport, please call Emergency Phone number: +81 50-3096-0911. Accommodation: Hotel En Michi (or similar) * For the actual hotel your specific departure will be using, please check your voucher.

Day 2: Tokyo Take a walking tour of eclectic modern Tokyo from the hub of Shinjuku to Shibuya through to Harajuku. The rest of the day is free for exploring more of the city.

Your tour leader will lead the group on a walking tour of eclectic modern Tokyo from the hub of Shinjuku to Shibuya through to Harajuku. Start with a birds-eye view of the city from Tokyo Metropolitan Government Building (opt to return this evening for a nighttime view!). Visit the beautiful Meiji Shrine, a Shinto shrine dedicated to the deified spirits of Emperor Meiji and his wife, Empress Shōken. Then see the famous scramble crossing in Shibuya—automobile traffic is stopped from all sides, and pedestrians scramble across the intersection in every direction, with as many as 3,000 people crossing at one time! The rest of the day is free to explore more of the city. Accommodation: Hotel En Michi (or similar)

Day 3: Tokyo/Nagano Journey to Nagano, located in the Japanese Alps and host city of the 1998 Winter Olympics. Visit the world-famous Jigokudani Monkey Park and watch Japanese snow monkeys bathing in the natural hot springs.

Today we board a bullet train and journey to Nagano, located in the Japanese Alps and host city of the 1998 Winter Olympics. After arriving in Nagano, we will take a public bus to visit the Jigokudani Monkey Park, where wild snow monkeys can be seen bathing in the natural hot springs. The pool where most of the monkeys soak is man-made, fed by the hot springs. Along the walking paths up to the pools, other monkeys tend to stop and watch visitors curiously. The beautiful walk through the forest from the bus stop to the hot springs takes about 30–45 minutes. Approximate travel time: 3 hrs by bullet train

Accommodation: Nagano Tokyu REI Hotel (or similar)

Day 4: Nagano Enjoy a day-trip to quaint Matsumoto and visit one of Japan's most treasured castles. Return to Nagano and explore historic Zenkoji Temple.

Today, we travel by local train for a day trip to quaint Matsumoto, where we will visit one of Japan's most treasured castles. Amazingly, Matsumoto Castle still retains its original wooden interior and stone exterior. Explore this castle where 16th-century Samurai once roamed before venturing out with the group to wander Matsumoto's ancient streets or dine in a traditional storehouse. We then return to Nagano and visit the Buddhist temple of Zenkō-ji, one of the last remaining pilgrimage sites in Japan. Built in the 7th century, the city of Nagano grew around the temple. The first Buddha image in Japan, brought from Korea in 522 AD, is known as a hibutsu, or 'secret Buddha,' because it is kept completely hidden from the public eye. The temple laws prohibit the statue from being shown to anyone, including the chief priest of the temple. Approximate travel time: 3-4 hrs round trip by local train
Accommodation: Nagano Tokyu REI Hotel (or similar)

Day 5: Nagano/Otsu Travel to Otsu in Shiga prefecture. Settle in and relax with a stroll around the picturesque Lake Biwa before heading out to enjoy a delicious bowl of ramen for dinner.

Today we travel to Otsu in Shiga prefecture, located on the banks of Lake Biwa, Japan's largest freshwater lake. Settle in and relax with a stroll (or bike ride) around this picturesque lake before heading out to enjoy a delicious bowl of ramen for dinner. Your time in lovely Otsu will be brief.
Approximate travel time: 4.5 hrs by train Accommodation: Lake Biwa Otsu Prince Hotel (or similar)
Meals included: Dinner

Day 6: Otsu/Hagi Grab a quick breakfast before a long travel day. Arrive in Hagi, a former castle town that boasts feudal architecture. Meet your host family at a community homestay and get to know each other as you enjoy dinner together.

Grab a quick breakfast before a long travel day. Please note that before leaving Ōtsu, you'll need to prepare your day pack/overnight bag for a two-night stay in Hagi, as your main luggage will be sent ahead to Tottori. Remember to include comfortable clothing for a cycling excursion and two nights at the homestay. Also, grab a bento box from Lawson's or FamilyMart to eat during the train journey. In the late afternoon, arrive in the quaint city of Hagi, a former castle town that boasts feudal architecture. Take part in a welcome ceremony with the local residents—your host families! Get to know a local family during your community homestay in Hagi. In recent years, due to the rapidly aging population and limited income opportunities in many of the rural areas of Japan, young people and other community members have had to leave Hagi to make a living in larger cities, like Osaka and Tokyo. Learn about local history and customs from your host family, and enjoy a home-cooked meal with them.
Approximate travel time: 6.5 hrs by train Accommodation: Homestay in Hagi (or similar) Meals included: Breakfast | Dinner

Day 7: Hagi Explore rural Hagi on a guided morning cycle. Enjoy free time to wander the narrow streets or opt to visit some of the beautiful old residences. Later return to your homestay and enjoy dinner with your host family.

Explore rural Hagi on a guided morning cycle through town. Enjoy the slow pace of life as you pedal past the city's Tokugawa-era architecture, and cycle along the Japanese Sea. Opt to jump in and go for a quick swim. Your clothes will dry off as you cycle back to the visitor center. Afterward, you will have free time to try some local cuisine and wander the narrow streets or visit some of the beautiful old residences that are open to the public. In the late afternoon, return to your homestay and enjoy dinner with your host family. Accommodation: Homestay in Hagi (or similar) Meals included: Breakfast | Dinner

Day 8: Hagi/Tottori Bid farewell to your host family after enjoying breakfast together. Travel to Miho-misumi by train. Learn the art of making "washi," a Japanese paper, before continuing to the seaside town of Tottori.

This morning, you'll bid farewell to your host families after enjoying breakfast together. Later, travel to Miho-misumi by train, taking in scenic views along the way. In Miho-misumi, learn the art of making "washi," a UNESCO-recognized traditional Japanese paper, and take home your handmade washi as a memento. Then, board another train to the seaside town of Tottori, where you'll end the day.

Approximate travel time: 6 hrs total by train Accommodation: New Otani Tottori (or similar) Meals included: Breakfast | Lunch

Day 9: Tottori/Kyoto Spend the morning exploring Tottori's scenic sand dunes. After, visit the local fish market and opt for a fresh seafood lunch. Later travel to Kyoto.

Located along the coast of the Sea of Japan, the Tottori Sand Dunes (or "Tottori Sakyu") were formed thousands of years ago when sand was washed away from a nearby river. This morning, we'll walk along the dunes and climb one to take in scenic views of the coastline. Afterward, take a bus to Tottori's harbor fish market, home to fresh seafood and some of Japan's best crab. Walk among the stalls and watch the locals in action. Opt to try a tasty dish in the market's restaurant section. In the late afternoon, travel to Kyoto, the traditional heart of Japan. Approximate travel time: 3 hrs by train Accommodation: Prince Smart Inn Kyoto Shijo Omiya (or similar)

Day 10: Kyoto Visit the iconic Fushimi Inari Taisha Shrine, famed for an impressive 10,000 red torii gates. This afternoon, enjoy free time in this picturesque city.

We will start off the day with a visit to the Fushimi Inari Shrine, located just outside of Kyoto. Walk under the thousands of iconic torii gates (as seen in the film Memoirs of a Geisha) and enjoy the peaceful atmosphere. The shrine itself is at the base of the Inari mountain but includes many trails up to smaller shrines in the area. If you're up for a challenge, hike all the way to the very top! Kyoto is home to over 2,000 temples, including some of the most magnificent in the country, dating back centuries. Use your free time to continue exploring—the city also boasts museums, castles, and traditional gardens—or opt to visit neighboring Nara or Osaka. Accommodation: Prince Smart Inn Kyoto Shijo Omiya (or similar)

Day 11: Kyoto Depart Kyoto at any time.

There are no planned activities today, so you may depart Kyoto at any time. Kyoto does not have its own airport, but the nearest airports are Osaka International (Itami) Airport (ITM) and Kansai International Airport (KIX). Both airports offer an "Airport Limousine Bus" from Kyoto; see the timetables and fares for ITM here and for KIX here. If a round-trip airline ticket (e.g., flying into and out of Tokyo) is much more affordable than a multi-city ticket, you can return to Tokyo on a bullet train ($100–120). Please make sure to allow 2.5 hours to travel from Kyoto Station to your airport in Tokyo, and plan to arrive at the airport at least three hours prior to your scheduled departure. We highly recommend extending your stay in Kyoto by at least one day or more to allow more time to explore this incredible city and/or take day trips to Osaka and Hiroshima (by Shinkansen). You may book post-trip accommodation at your hotel in Kyoto through us. Please note that check-out time from the hotel is usually mid-morning, but luggage storage services are available at the reception desk. Want more adventure? Book two or more GEE0 programs in the same school year and receive a discount! GEE0 will give you 10% off the lesser-value program(s) (up to 3 programs per year). If you would like to extend your time abroad but don't see another GEE0 program that interests you, let us know. We can work with you to find a trip from our tour operator's much larger catalog. Their tours are open to the general public and not designed specifically for educators, but we can still offer you and your travel companions a discounted educator price on any additional tours that you book.
