
GEEO ITINERARY

Vietnam and Cambodia 1/9/2026

Day 1: Hanoi Arrive in Hanoi at any time. Meet your group for a welcome meeting around 6:00 or 7:00 p.m.

Arrive in Hanoi at any time. There are no planned activities until the Welcome Meeting in the evening. The airport in Hanoi is Noi Bai International Airport (HAN).

Consider arriving 1-2 days early to explore the city, adjust to the time zone, and buffer against flight delays. We can request extra hotel nights for you before the program begins.

Pre-Trip Must-Sees: Stroll through Hanoi's Old Quarter and its maze of streets, each one traditionally devoted to a different product or industry. Alternatively, you could visit Tran Quoc Pagoda, the Temple of Literature (Van Mieu), or Ho Chi Minh's Mausoleum and Museum. The Mausoleum houses the remains of Ho Chi Minh, the founding father of the unified Vietnam.

Hotel Check-in and Welcome Meeting

Hotel check-in is normally between 2-3 p.m. Check with reception for the exact time and location of the group welcome meeting, typically between 6-7 p.m. Please make every effort to attend this meeting. If you're running late, send a message in the group WhatsApp or call the emergency number on your trip voucher so that your tour leader can let you know where and when to meet the group.

After the meeting, you might choose to get dinner at a nearby restaurant with your traveling companions and your tour leader to further get to know one another.

Joining Instructions

Pre-Booked Arrival Transfer: If you've arranged an airport transfer through GEEO, look for a driver holding a sign with the G Adventures Logo in the arrivals hall. Verify the driver knows your name and hotel name. If in doubt, ask them to call their manager to confirm. If you're not met or cannot make contact, call the emergency number on your trip voucher or take a taxi to the hotel (keep your receipt).

Warning: People have misrepresented themselves as G Adventures representatives at Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh airports. Do not accept unsolicited offers of "help."

Taxi: (~$17 USD | 40-50 minutes) Airport taxis are available outside arrivals. Pay your driver when you arrive at the hotel.

Shuttle Bus + Taxi: (~45,000 Dong / $2-4 USD) The Vietnam Airlines shuttle bus goes to the Vietnam Airlines office downtown. From there, take a metered taxi to your hotel.

Caution: Avoid illegal taxi drivers who may overcharge in USD or offer unfavorable exchange rates for Vietnamese Dong. Use official airport taxi services only.

Day 2: Hanoi/Halong Bay Enjoy a Ha Long Bay cruise on a junk boat with visits to a cave and an island lookout. Savor a seafood lunch and dinner.

A 3-hour drive takes us to Bai Chay harbor, our entry point to Halong Bay.

Thousands of islands rise dramatically from the serene waters of Halong Bay. The massive limestone karst formations contain intricate cave systems and make for spectacular scenery. We board a traditional junk boat at Ha Long Bay harbor and cruise out among the isles. Swim, kayak, or go cave exploring on one of the islands, if conditions are right. We will also indulge in fresh seafood meals with a variety of dishes to sample before drifting to sleep in a cozy cabin on board.

On rare occasions, Halong Bay is closed to tourist vessels by the government authorities due to extreme weather conditions. Should this occur, an alternate activity will be provided.

Approximate travel time: 3 hrs by shared van

Meals included: Breakfast | Lunch | Dinner

Day 3: Halong Bay/Huế Cruise back to the port and drive to Hanoi. Enjoy more time in the city before an overnight train to Huế

Today, we enjoy breakfast and lunch on board the junk boat before sailing back to the port. Back at port, we hop in a private vehicle for the drive back to Hanoi for a little more free time to enjoy the city. You will have enough time for shopping or further sightseeing before we catch our overnight train to Huế.

Train travel in Vietnam is very basic, and train cleanliness is often not a priority for train staff. Sleeper trains normally have 4 seats per compartment, which convert into sleeping bunks (two upper and two lower). A sheet, pillow, and blanket are provided, although many people prefer to bring their own sleeping sheet. At times, passengers of different genders may be required to share a sleeper train berth and/or share a compartment with people not traveling in your group.

Simple food is available on the train, but many people like to stock up on freshly baked bread, cheese, and fruit prior to departure. Water should also be bought before the journey.

Approximate travel time: 4 hrs by private vehicle (Halong Bay to Hanoi); 14 hrs by overnight sleeper train (Hanoi to Huế)

Meals included: Breakfast | Lunch

Day 4: Huế Guided tour of the Imperial Citadel, Tien Mu Pagoda, and Royal Tomb. Opt to take a countryside motorbike tour.

We arrive in Huế, once the imperial capital of Vietnam, in the early morning. We start the day with a tour of the Imperial Citadel, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, where we will see the walled fortress and former palace, which has many gateways, courtyards, and gardens to explore. Inside the citadel, the Forbidden Purple City, modeled on China's Forbidden City, was once home to the imperial family and was significantly damaged during the Vietnam War.

Next, we visit to the Tien Mu Pagoda, one of the most elegant and tallest pagodas in Vietnam at seven stories high. Built more than 400 years ago along the north shore of the Perfume River, the pagoda has been the site of many political protests. We also visit the Royal Tombs along the Perfume River in Hue. Embracing the concept of Feng Shui, these tombs are extremely ornate and provide fantastic insight into the lives of the former rulers.

While in the city, try some local Hue specialties such as banh khoai (Hue savory pancakes), and banh bot loc boc tom thit (thin rice paper filled with meat and shrimp).

Day 5: Huế/Hoi An Drive the Hai Van pass. Take advantage of Hoi An's many options over your two and a half days there. Opt for a cooking class, riverboat trip, lantern making class, bike ride, beach time, tailor visit, or Mỹ Sơn ruins.

This morning, we depart for Hoi An. We will cross through the Hai Van Pass, weather permitting, with fantastic views all around. We arrive in Hoi An in the afternoon for a 3-night stay.

Once known as Faifo, Hoi An was an important trading town with strong south Chinese influence and connections. You can take a walking tour of this living museum, which includes the Museum of History and Culture, the Tan Ky house, the Japanese bridge, the Fujian Assembly Hall, and lunch at a riverside restaurant to sample some of the local delicacies. Hoi An is also a shopping mecca for tourists in the region. Tailors can produce virtually anything overnight. Clothing, silk lanterns, lacquerware, and many other crafts abound. For sun worshipers, Cua Dai Beach, 4 km from town, makes for a great, flat bike ride.

Approximate travel time: 4 hrs by private vehicle

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 6: Hoi An Spend 2 full days exploring all Hoi An has to offer. Dive into the culture, hang out on the beach, or buy tailor-made clothes. Enjoy a noodle-making demonstration and lunch at Oodles of Noodles, a G Adventures-supported project.

Today is the first of two full days for you to explore all that Hoi An has to offer. You can choose to immerse yourself in the culture, bike to the beach for some quality sun time, or get custom-made clothes by one of the many tailor shops around town.

We get together as a group for an included cooking class and lunch, when you can try some of the oodles of noodles (more than 26 types!) available in the city. Run by a Planeterra Foundation partner, STREETS International, the class was developed exclusively for G Adventures. Former street youth that are part of this hospitality training program will help you prepare and cook a number of different types of noodles. The program helps these youth practice their English, increasing their skill set and opportunities available to them in the tourism industry.

You may want to continue your culinary education in the evening and take an optional cooking class to learn even more about Vietnamese food and its distinct flavors. Tour the local market to buy fresh ingredients before preparing some popular regional dishes. You get to enjoy your creations when you're done!

Meals included: Breakfast | Lunch

Day 7: Hoi An Spend another free day exploring Hoi An.

Today, you spend a second free day exploring all Hoi An has to offer.

You might consider a day trip visit to Mỹ Sơn. Travel approximately one hour from Hoi An to arrive at Mỹ Sơn, with its Hindu temples built between the fourth and 14th centuries. The site is widely accepted as one of the most important Hindu temple complexes in Southeast Asia. Learn about the architectural style and history of a site that's often compared to Angkor Wat in Cambodia and Bagan in Burma.

You can also opt for a boat trip on the Thu Bon River, which plays an important part in Hoi An's history and culture.

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 8: Hoi An/Ho Chi Minh City Fly from Hoi An to Ho Chi Minh City. Enjoy free time in this hectic city.

This morning, we drive to Danang for the flight to Ho Chi Minh City, the sprawling metropolis that was once the capital of South Vietnam and remains the country's commercial center. Start by exploring the small alleys and busy streets, keeping an eye out for lacquerware shops and delicious local food stalls.

Approximate travel time: 45 mins by private vehicle (Hoi An to Danang); 1 hr by plane (Da Nang to Ho Chi Minh City)

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 9: Ho Chi Minh City Take a guided tour of Cu Chi Tunnels in the morning. Enjoy more free time in the afternoon.

In the morning, we drive 1.5 hours to the Cu Chi Tunnels, where we will get a guided tour of a complex network of tunnels that the Viet Cong lived in to protect themselves from opposing forces during the Vietnam War. Try crawling through some of the tunnels, if you're not claustrophobic. These tunnels stored ammunition, contained underground hospitals, and served as a hidden base for attacking allied forces. Afterward, we drive back to Ho Chi Minh City.

Enjoy free time in the afternoon, possibly to visit the Thien Hau and Giac Vien pagodas and stroll through the immense Ben Than Market. There is also the Reunification Palace, the residence of the presidents of South Vietnam before 1975. Or, you can take in the busy rhythm of daily life in Cholon ("big market"), the Chinese quarter full of teahouses and pagodas.

The War Remnants Museum is a gut-wrenching but worthwhile experience that includes three stories of exhibits. Learn about the devastation that occurred in Saigon during the Vietnam War, a period that greatly contrasts with the joy and liveliness of the Vietnamese people today.

Approximate travel time: 3 hrs by private vehicle

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 10: Mekong Delta Enjoy a boat cruise through the villages, islands, and markets of the Mekong Delta. Visit traditional candy factories.

Today, we travel to where the mighty Mekong River approaches and empties into the South China Sea. We board a small boat and navigate through the narrow canals, witnessing local lifestyle, floating vendors, and small industrial boats. You will notice that many of the Vietnamese boats have eyes painted on the front to ward off evil spirits and to help guide the boat and crew safely back to land.

We disembark our boat to visit some cottage industries for which the area is famous, such as delicious and chewy coconut candy, rice cakes, Vietnamese popcorn, and pottery. Don't miss the chance to try the unique regional "elephant fish" at a local restaurant during our lunch break.

After a day of touring this unique region, we return to Ho Chi Minh City in time for dinner.

Approximate travel time: 4.5-5 hrs by private vehicle

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 11: Ho Chi Minh City/Phnom Penh Travel day with border crossing from Vietnam to Cambodia. Enjoy a cyclo tour through Phnom Penh.

Today, we cross into Cambodia by public bus. The drive to the Vietnam-Cambodia border takes around 2 hours. After completing the border formalities, we continue by private vehicle another 3 hours to Phnom Penh, Cambodia's capital, arriving mid-afternoon.

After years of civil strife and political turmoil, Cambodia is open to visitors. In the late afternoon, we each get in traditional cyclos and depart from Wat Phnom. Tour busy streets to soak up the real vibe of the city. Pass the post office and Van's restaurant, both stunning colonial buildings, and make your way to the Royal Palace and National Museum. Go along the riverside road and take in the atmospheric cafes that line the street.

Approximate travel time: 2 hrs by public bus, 3 hrs by private vehicle, 1 hr on cyclo tour

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 12: Phnom Penh Guided tour of Tuol Sleng Museum (S-21 Prison) and Choeng Ek (Killing Fields). Opt to visit the Royal Palace, the National Museum, or the Central Market.

This morning, a local guide will teach us more about the dark side of Cambodian history. We will visit to Choeng Ek, the somber yet serene site of the infamous Killing Fields. The grounds now stand as a powerful memorial filled with victims' skulls and mass graves. Afterward, we visit the Tuol Sleng Museum, where we will learn about the dark history and devastation that occurred when the museum operated instead as Security Prison 21 (S-21) under the Khmer Rouge. We will take a guided tour to hear the stories behind the somber photos lining the museum walls.

Afterward, you will have a free afternoon to explore the city's many sights: the Royal Palace, the Silver Pagoda, and/or the National Museum. You might choose to visit the Russian Market, packed with souvenirs and all the necessities of daily life. Late afternoon is a great time to visit Wat Phnom, the sanctuary where the city's namesake once stood. It is a Buddhist shrine, although a Taoist goddess and numerous monkeys also reside here. Wat Phnom is a popular hangout for residents of the city in the afternoon heat. For a fitting finale to the day, sip a drink in one of the many riverside café's watching the sun set.

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 13: Phnom Penh/Siem Reap Drive from Phnom Penh to Siem Reap, the home base for exploring incredible Angkor Wat.

Today, we drive from Phnom Penh to Siem Reap, the home base from which we will explore the incredible Angkor Wat tomorrow.

You can pre-book the Phase Circus with us for this day. For $18, enjoy a stellar performance by Phare, a unique and socially-conscious circus that injects Cambodian culture and history into its inspiring shows. See acrobatics, contortion, and aerial arts melded with theatre, modern dance, and more. Take in stories of war, relationships, and discrimination, inspired by the real-life experiences of Phare's creators and performers.

Approximate travel time: 6 hrs by private vehicle.

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 14: Siem Reap Enjoy a guided tour of the Angkor Wat temple complex. With free time in the afternoon, opt to visit the Tonlé Sap floating village and the Angkor National Museum. Enjoy a traditional meal of Khmer food at a local home in a village outside the city.

Today, we watch the sun rise over the massive Angkor temple complex during a guided tour. You might opt to visit the Tonlé Sap floating village, where you can see what life is like living on a lake; rice planting, pig farming, even attending churches and school are all done on top of water.

If you choose to visit the interactive Angkor National Museum, you will learn about the story of Angkor and the Khmer empire. The museum's inspiring galleries and interactive technology bring Angkor's past to life.

We will enjoy a traditional meal of Khmer food at a local home in a village outside the city or at a G Adventures-supported project, New Hope, depending on the day or the week.

Meals included: Breakfast | Dinner

Day 15: Siem Reap Spend another day exploring the temples of Angkor. In the afternoon, opt to going further afield in Siem Reap.

This morning, enjoy another day touring the impressive ancient ruins with a local guide. In the afternoon, you have more free time to explore Siem Reap and Angkor, the former capital of the Khmer kingdom and one of the wonders of the archaeological world. See some of the highlights of this ancient capital, like sunrise at the magnificent temple of Angkor Wat, the enigmatic Bayon within the walled city of Angkor Thom, and Ta Prohm, also known as the "Tomb Raider" temple.

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 16: Siem Reap/Bangkok Fly from Cambodia to Thailand. Spend the rest of the day exploring the bustling city of Bangkok.

Catch a short morning flight from Siem Reap to Bangkok, the capital of the Kingdom of Thailand.

Upon arrival in Bangkok, check into the centrally-located hotel and enjoy some free time to explore the city before an evening meal to celebrate the end of a wonderful journey.

Approximate travel time: 1.5 hrs by plane

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 17: Bangkok Depart Bangkok at any time. We highly recommend booking extra post-trip accommodation to fully experience this lively city.

There are no planned activities today, so you may depart Bangkok at any time. The tour ends in Bangkok, and the main airport is Suvarnabhumi Airport (BKK). The secondary airport is Don Mueang International Airport (DKK). If you wish to extend your stay in Bangkok, consider booking post-tour accommodation with us.

Please note that check-out time from the hotel is usually mid-morning, but luggage storage services are available at the reception desk.

Meals included: Breakfast
