
GEEO ITINERARY

Japan with Bill Howe

Day 1: Tokyo Arrive in Tokyo by 3:00 p.m. Meet your group for a welcome meeting around 5-6 p.m.

Arrive in Tokyo by 3:00 p.m. to ensure you are able to attend the welcome meeting. There are no planned activities before the welcome meeting, but the tour leader must collect everyone's passports during the meeting to pick up your JR rail passes.

The nearest airport is Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) (HND), which is much closer to central Tokyo (~30-45 minutes). Narita International Airport (NRT) is farther from the city (~60-90 minutes) but often offers more international flight options and sometimes cheaper fares.

Consider arriving 1-2 days early to explore the city (e.g., to see Sensō-ji Temple or Tokyo Tower), adjust to the time zone, and buffer against flight delays. We can request extra hotel nights for you before the program begins.

Hotel Check-in and Welcome Meeting

Hotel check-in is normally between 2-3 p.m. Check with reception for the exact time and location of the group welcome meeting, around 5-6 p.m. It is very important that you attend this meeting so that your tour leader can collect your passport and pick up your rail pass. If you're running late, send a message in the group WhatsApp or call the emergency number on your trip voucher so that your tour leader is made aware.

After the meeting, you might choose to get dinner at a nearby restaurant with your traveling companions and your tour leader to further get to know one another.

Day 2: Tokyo Take a walking tour of eclectic modern Tokyo from the hub of Shinjuku to Shibuya through to Harajuku. The rest of the day is free for exploring more of the city.

Your tour leader will lead the group on a walking tour of eclectic modern Tokyo from the hub of Shinjuku to Shibuya through to Harajuku.

Start with a birds-eye view of the city from Tokyo Metropolitan Government Building (opt to return this evening for a nighttime view!). Visit the beautiful Meiji Shrine, a Shinto shrine dedicated to the deified spirits of Emperor Meiji and his wife, Empress Shōken. Then see the famous scramble crossing in Shibuya—automobile traffic is stopped from all sides, and pedestrians scramble across the intersection in every direction, with as many as 3,000 people crossing at one time!

The rest of the day is free to explore more of the city.

Day 3: Tokyo/Nagano Journey to Nagano, located in the Japanese Alps and host city of the 1998 Winter Olympics. Visit the world-famous Jigokudani Monkey Park and watch Japanese snow monkeys bathing in the natural hot springs.

Today we board a bullet train and journey to Nagano, located in the Japanese Alps and host city of the 1998 Winter Olympics.

After arriving in Nagano, we will take a public bus to visit the Jigokudani Monkey Park, where wild snow monkeys can be seen bathing in the natural hot springs. The pool where most of the monkeys soak is man-made, fed by the hot springs. Along the walking paths up to the pools, other monkeys tend to stop and watch visitors curiously. The beautiful walk through the forest from the bus stop to the hot springs takes about 30–45 minutes.

Approximate travel time: 3 hrs by bullet train

Day 4: Nagano Enjoy a day-trip to quaint Matsumoto and visit one of Japan's most treasured castles. Return to Nagano and explore historic Zenkoji Temple.

Today, we travel by local train for a day trip to quaint Matsumoto, where we will visit one of Japan's most treasured castles. Amazingly, Matsumoto Castle still retains its original wooden interior and stone exterior. Explore this castle where 16th-century Samurai once roamed before venturing out with the group to wander Matsumoto's ancient streets or dine in a traditional storehouse.

We then return to Nagano and visit the Buddhist temple of Zenkō-ji, one of the last remaining pilgrimage sites in Japan. Built in the 7th century, the city of Nagano grew around the temple. The first Buddha image in Japan, brought from Korea in 522 AD, is known as a hibutsu, or 'secret Buddha,' because it is kept completely hidden from the public eye. The temple laws prohibit the statue from being shown to anyone, including the chief priest of the temple.

Approximate travel time: 3-4 hrs round trip by local train

Day 5: Nagano/Otsu Travel to Otsu in Shiga prefecture. Settle in and relax with a stroll around the picturesque Lake Biwa before heading out to enjoy a delicious bowl of ramen for dinner.

Today we travel to Otsu in Shiga prefecture, located on the banks of Lake Biwa, Japan's largest freshwater lake. Settle in and relax with a stroll (or bike ride) around this picturesque lake before heading out to enjoy a delicious bowl of ramen for dinner. Your time in lovely Otsu will be brief.

Approximate travel time: 4.5 hrs by train

Meals included: Dinner

Day 6: Otsu/Hagi Grab a quick breakfast before a long travel day. Arrive in Hagi, a former castle town that boasts feudal architecture. Meet your host family at a community homestay and get to know each other as you enjoy dinner together.

Grab a quick breakfast before a long travel day. Please note that before leaving Ōtsu, you'll need to prepare your day pack/overnight bag for a two-night stay in Hagi, as your main luggage will be sent ahead to Tottori. Remember to include comfortable clothing for a cycling excursion and two nights at the homestay. Also, grab a bento box from Lawson's or FamilyMart to eat during the train journey.

In the late afternoon, arrive in the quaint city of Hagi, a former castle town that boasts feudal architecture. Take part in a welcome ceremony with the local residents—your host families! Get to know a local family during your community homestay in Hagi. In recent years, due to the rapidly aging population and limited income opportunities in many of the rural areas of Japan, young people and other community members have had to leave Hagi to make a living in larger cities, like Osaka and Tokyo. Learn about local history and customs from your host family, and enjoy a home-cooked meal with them.

Approximate travel time: 6.5 hrs by train

Meals included: Breakfast | Dinner

Day 7: Hagi Explore rural Hagi on a guided morning cycle. Enjoy free time to wander the narrow streets or opt to visit some of the beautiful old residences. Later return to your homestay and enjoy dinner with your host family.

Explore rural Hagi on a guided morning cycle through town. Enjoy the slow pace of life as you pedal past the city's Tokugawa-era architecture, and cycle along the Japanese Sea. Opt to jump in and go for a quick swim. Your clothes will dry off as you cycle back to the visitor center.

Afterward, you will have free time to try some local cuisine and wander the narrow streets or visit some of the beautiful old residences that are open to the public. In the late afternoon, return to your homestay and enjoy dinner with your host family.

Meals included: Breakfast | Dinner

Day 8: Hagi/Tottori Bid farewell to your host family after enjoying breakfast together. Travel to Miho-misumi by train. Learn the art of making "washi," a Japanese paper, before continuing to the seaside town of Tottori.

This morning, you'll bid farewell to your host families after enjoying breakfast together. Later, travel to Miho-misumi by train, taking in scenic views along the way. In Miho-misumi, learn the art of making "washi," a UNESCO-recognized traditional Japanese paper, and take home your handmade washi as a memento. Then, board another train to the seaside town of Tottori, where you'll end the day.

Approximate travel time: 6 hrs total by train

Meals included: Breakfast | Lunch

Day 9: Tottori/Kyoto Spend the morning exploring Tottori's scenic sand dunes.

After, visit the local fish market and opt for a fresh seafood lunch. Later travel to Kyoto.

Located along the coast of the Sea of Japan, the Tottori Sand Dunes (or "Tottori Sakyu") were formed thousands of years ago when sand was washed away from a nearby river. This morning, we'll walk along the dunes and climb one to take in scenic views of the coastline.

Afterward, take a bus to Tottori's harbor fish market, home to fresh seafood and some of Japan's best crab. Walk among the stalls and watch the locals in action. Opt to try a tasty dish in the market's restaurant section.

In the late afternoon, travel to Kyoto, the traditional heart of Japan.

Approximate travel time: 3 hrs by train

Day 10: Kyoto Visit the iconic Fushimi Inari Taisha Shrine, famed for an impressive 10,000 red torii gates. This afternoon, enjoy free time in this picturesque city.

We will start off the day with a visit to the Fushimi Inari Shrine, located just outside of Kyoto. Walk under the thousands of iconic torii gates (as seen in the film Memoirs of a Geisha) and enjoy the peaceful atmosphere. The shrine itself is at the base of the Inari mountain but includes many trails up to smaller shrines in the area. If you're up for a challenge, hike all the way to the very top!

Kyoto is home to over 2,000 temples, including some of the most magnificent in the country, dating back centuries. Use your free time to continue exploring—the city also boasts museums, castles, and traditional gardens—or opt to visit neighboring Nara or Osaka.

Day 11: Kyoto Depart Kyoto at any time.

There are no planned activities today, so you may depart Kyoto at any time. Kyoto does not have its own airport, but the closest airport to Kyoto is Osaka International (Itami) Airport (ITM).

For travellers flying out of Kansai International Airport (KIX), note that taxis can be quite expensive in the late hours. Other options include:

1. By train - departing from Kyoto station, the limited express "Haruka" Train goes directly to the airport. The last train to the airport leaves Kyoto station at 20:30.
2. By bus - departing from Kyoto station, with several stops along the way. The last bus to the airport leaves Kyoto station at 22:10.
