
GEEO ITINERARY

Morocco 6/15/2027

Day 1: Casablanca Arrive in Casablanca at any time. Meet your group for a welcome meeting around 6:00 or 7:00 p.m.

Arrive at any time. There are no planned activities until the Welcome Meeting in the evening. The nearest airport is Casablanca Mohammed V International Airport (CMN).

Explore Casablanca: This tour does not spend any time in Casablanca. Consider arriving 1-2 days early to explore the city, adjust to the time zone, and buffer against flight delays. We can request extra hotel nights for you before the program begins.

We recommend visiting Casablanca's small medina, beachfront, and notable Art Deco architecture. A must-see is the Hassan II Mosque, open for guided tours from Saturday to Thursday at 09:00, 10:00, 11:00, and 15:00. You can pre-book guided tours on Viator.

Hotel Check-in and Welcome Meeting

Hotel check-in is normally between 2–3 p.m. Check with reception for the exact time and location of the group welcome meeting, typically between 6–7 p.m. Please make every effort to attend this meeting. If you're running late, send a message in the group WhatsApp or call the emergency number on your trip voucher so that your tour leader can let you know where and when to meet the group.

After the meeting, you might choose to get dinner at a nearby restaurant with your traveling companions and your tour leader to further get to know one another.

Joining Instructions

Taxi: (~300 MAD / ~$33 USD | ~1hr) Available at the airport entrance. Taxis are metered—ensure the meter is reset before departure. The drive to the hotel is approximately 20 miles. Note: Most taxis only accept cash. Withdraw or exchange a small amount of Moroccan dirhams at the airport (enough for taxi fare plus a 10-15% tip).

Pre-Booked Arrival Transfer: If you purchased a transfer with us, look for the driver holding a G Adventures sign outside Terminal 1. Ask them who they are collecting (do not give your name—they should already have this information). Once they confirm the correct name, show your passport and you're on your way. A tip of 10-15% is customary for your driver.

Day 2: Casablanca/Fès After lunch, take a guided tour of the ancient Roman ruins of Volubilis. Continue on to Fès.

This morning, leave Casablanca and drive to the AFER Association, where we enjoy a traditional lunch that benefits rural Moroccan women and children with disabilities. The association provides vital services including literacy and vocational training, health services, disability assistance, and the operation of a local ambulance. AFER's training center hosts culinary programs that graduate 30 students each year, many of whom go on to work in the project. Through this work, AFER creates sustainable employment, fosters community cohesion, and showcases Moroccan culture to travelers. During your visit, you will enjoy a traditional home-cooked Moroccan meal, featuring classic dishes such as vegetable tagine or roasted chicken with onion sauce, and meet some of the women that are part of this important community program.

Next, listen to a certified local guide explain life in the Roman Empire at the UNESCO World Heritage Site at Volubilis. Visit the impressive, well-preserved Roman ruins, peer into old bathhouses, marvel at the still-present mosaic floors, and gaze up at towering marble pillars. Listen to stories about life in this Roman city that will leave you in awe of just how far their empire stretched.

After, continue to Fès, one of Morocco's most interesting cities. Take some free time to explore the labyrinth of streets, and view one of the ancient tanneries from above to see the myriad of colors and observe the leather tanning processes.

Approximate travel time: 6 hours including stops in private vehicle

Meals included: Breakfast | Lunch

Day 3: Fès Explore the labyrinth of streets within the famous Fès medina with a local guide. Take in a view of one of the ancient tanneries from above and marvel at the myriad of colors and processes.

The Fès medina is the world's largest living medieval medina and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Enter through one of the great gates into the chaos and follow a local guide through this 1.4-sq. mile medina with more than 9,000 winding streets. Some buildings in the medina date back to the 9th century; there are 350 mosques in the medina that are still in use today. We will explore the artisan quarters, sample treats from the carts, and visit the mausoleum and the Al Qarawiyyin University. A highlight is the view of the famous Fès tannery from the balcony of a leather shop, where you can observe the men hard at work treating and dyeing the different hides. Take some time to shop for leather goods before returning to your hotel.

Please note: Only certified local Fès guides are allowed to guide in the medina. During your free time, your tour leader (a nationally certified guide) cannot accompany you here.

Enjoy free time this afternoon.

In the evening, there may be the chance to partake in an optional dinner in a grand old Fès riad that has been converted into a spectacular restaurant. Enjoy a delicious meal of local specialties while enjoying an evening of entertainment that includes singing, music, and belly dancing.

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 4: Fès/Merzouga Drive south towards the desert and embark on a camel ride into the dunes to watch the sunset. Head back to your hotel for a night of entertainment under the stars.

Today we have a full travel day through the diverse landscapes that make Morocco so unique. As you pass through cedar and pine forests, keep an eye out for Barbary Macaques. Pass over the Middle Atlas Mountains through the pre-desert countryside with its deep gorges filled with a splendid oasis of green palm groves, finally arriving at the sand dunes of the Sahara Desert. Keep your eyes open for a glimpse of Barbary apes en route.

Upon arrival, settle into your hotel at the edge of the dunes and enjoy a warm welcome with mint tea. In the late afternoon, take a camel ride deep into the dunes to watch the sunset. Local guides will teach you how to mount and dismount and other handy camel-related safety tips. Be sure to get them to teach you the trick of tying your turban to keep the desert sun off your face and add a little flair to your photos.

We spend the night in a desert auberge, located right on the edge of the dunes, where we'll have a local-style dinner. Please note: some rooms may have shared bathroom facilities. After dinner, gather around a campfire under the stars near your hotel. Listen to stories about life in this region and, perhaps, some traditional music on the drums.

Approximate travel time: 10-11 hrs, including stops

Meals included: Breakfast | Dinner

Day 5: Merzouga/Todra Gorge Rise early to watch the sunrise. Walk through local village farmlands before exploring the cliff-sided canyons of the mighty Todra Gorge.

Get up early to catch the sunrise. Opt to spend the morning exploring the undulating golden sand of the dunes and discovering the surrounding communities on a land cruiser desert excursion. After breakfast, continue by private bus into the Todra Valley.

The Todra River has carved out cliff-sided canyons through the mountains. The final 300 meters of the gorge are the most spectacular, as the canyon narrows to a flat stony track as little as 10 meters wide in places with sheer and smooth rock walls up to 160 meters high on each side. Today, the Todra River looks more like a stream as it runs its way through the gorge, with hotels and restaurants huddled against the steep walls. It is easy to walk through the gorge, as there is a well-maintained dirt road. This scenic and serene spot is great for hiking, relaxing on the edge of the river, or sampling some local Amazigh (Berber) delicacies.

Approximate travel time: 3.5 hrs, including stops

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 6: Todra Gorge/Aït Ben Haddou Visit the Aït Ben Haddou Kasbah, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Opt to participate in a tagine cooking class for an intro to Moroccan cuisine.

In the morning, we'll continue along the "Route of 1,000 Kasbahs" to the thriving town of Ouarzazate for a lunch stop. This town is home to Atlas Film Studios, where many movies have been shot over the years, including Lawrence of Arabia and Gladiator.

Continue on to the fascinating and beautiful village of Aït Ben Haddou, a wonderful example of a kasbah (a type of fortress). Explore the UNESCO World Heritage Site with your tour leader. Of all the remaining kasbahs in Morocco, the walls and interior of this area are the most intact. Like many of the earthen-built fortresses in Ouarzazate, Aït Ben Haddou has been used in many film and television productions like Gladiator, Babel, and Game of Thrones.

In the evening, there may be a chance for an optional cooking class. Learn the secrets of how to make the perfect tagine and then sample your skills for your dinner.

Approximate travel time: 4 hrs

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 7: Aït Ben Haddou/Marrakech Drive to Marrakech for a medina tour with a local guide. Opt to visit Djemaa el Fna Square in the evening to see the musicians and street performers that gather there.

In the morning, we continue our journey to Marrakech with breathtaking views through the High Atlas Mountains via the Tizi n'Tichka Pass (7400 ft). Once you arrive in the "Red City," join your certified city guide for a tour of the Marrakech medina. Shop to your heart's content in the souks with their narrow, winding streets as you search out spices, traditional jalabas and slippers, or the famous Moroccan lanterns. Visit the historical Koutoubia Minaret and gardens, the Mellah, and the Saadian Tombs, a complex of sepulchers and mausoleums that house the remains of Saadian Sultan Ahmed Al Mansour Ed Dahb. The tombs were sealed off until their re-discovery in 1917. Tour the grounds of the Bahia Palace, marveling at the intricate decoration, and experience the sights and sounds of the bustling Jemaa el-Fna square. Once the tour is finished, you are free to discover the secrets of this amazing, ancient city at your leisure.

Once you've tired yourself out, relax at one of the tea houses around the square, indulging in sweet mint tea and watching the hustle and bustle from your shady spot.

End the day like a local with an optional group dinner in the famous food stalls of Jemaa el-Fnaa. The square changes its offerings throughout the day. In the morning, you can find fresh orange juice stalls, water sellers in colorful costumes with traditional leather water bags and brass cups, and snake charmers reminiscent of an era past. As the day progresses, the snake charmers are replaced by Chleuh dancing-boys, story-tellers, magicians, and peddlers of traditional medicines. As the sun sets, the square fills with dozens of food-stalls, packed with locals and the entertaining chefs and waiters. Grab a spot on a bench with the other diners and try the Tanjia (slow cooked lamb), Harira soup, grilled seafood, famous Moroccan couscous, tajine, snails or even sheep's head for the truly adventurous, and wash it all down with some spiced tea.

Approximate travel time: 4 hrs by private vehicle

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 8: Marrakech Depart Marrakech at any time.

There are no planned activities today, so you may depart Marrakech at any time. The nearest airport is Marrakesh Menara Airport (RAK). If your departure flight is out of Casablanca, affordable transfer options include a 3.5-hour train that runs a few times a day or direct flights from Marrakech to Casablanca; contact us for more information. If you wish to extend your stay in Marrakech, consider booking post-tour accommodation with us.

Please note that check-out time from the hotel is usually mid-morning, but luggage storage services are available at the reception desk.

Meals included: Breakfast
